MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS

1. Hunt Products

WHEREAS: The National Federation of Temple Youth continually strives to achieve the Jewish ideals of social justice and

WHEREAS: Mr. H.L. Hunt of Dallas, Texas openly donates large sums of money to the John Birch society and associations which support Arab claims against Israel

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that NFTY urges the boycott of all HLH products at (UAHC) camps, city functions and conference events.

2. Studies of Violence and Non-Violence

WHEREAS: NFTY believes that it is important to attack the problem of violence in the United States at all possible levels and

WHEREAS: It should be one of the purposes of our educational system to achieve respect for non-violence

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that NFTY urge the UAHC through its Commission on Education and Social Action to seek religious and secular education toward nonviolence that includes in school curricula the teachings of Gandhi, Thoreau, Martin Luther King and others and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that NFTY urge the UAHC to request that the National Institute of Mental Health, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, special U.S. Commissions and other agencies to continue to initiate and circulate studies which delve into criminal pathology, the social and psychological bases of mental health and non-violence and other factors that tend to create or alleviate violence in modern society.

3. NVN and CVN

[illegible] frequently, the [illegible] recommends that a youth group which has won NVN two successive years may, upon request to its Regional President and to the National Office work for NVN rather than CVN during the following year.

Note: H. L. Hunt has never made a contribution to the John Birch Society, which is a rival organization to LIFE LINE.